You enter the studio in the living area, with a dining table and two comfortable chairs. The sleeping area has a double bed with single mattresses (90 x 200 cm). There is a flat-screen TV, dresser and closet with hanging space and shelving. The kitchen is equipped with a four-burner gas stove, fridge freezer, combination microwave, toaster, kettle, Nespresso machine and filter coffee machine. There is no dishwasher. The bathroom has a toilet, sink, mirror and shower.

The front of the studio has large windows, and the kitchen has a skylight that allows plenty of natural light in. All windows have curtains.

There is an open terrace with a wooden bench, a small table and two chairs with cushions in front of the studio. Bikes can be locked to the ring attached to the fence. Up to two pets are allowed.

Surrounding area

Westkapelle is a quiet town located directly behind the dike, The studio is in the town centre; the supermarket is 50 metres away, and the bakery, butcher, drugstore, bike rental and restaurants are also within a few minutes walk.

Enjoy the numerous, clean and spacious sandy beaches in the area or get on your bike and explore the island of Walcheren on the well-maintained bike paths. At the Polder House, you can learn about the rich history of the dikes and the war history and find more information about cycling and hiking routes.
