The charming holiday home Bos en Duin is located in beautiful Vebena forest, directly behind the dunes of the largest southern beach in the Netherlands. Completely renovated and fully equipped. The spacious living room with French doors offers access to the terrace. Both, in the morning and in the afternoon you can enjoy a nice seat in the sun. The wood stove gives atmosphere and warmth (wood has to be taken by your own). So enjoy. The kitchen is equipped with every convenience, such as an electric hob with built-in hood, dishwasher, quooker, nespresso machine and an oven. There is a bedroom with a double bed and a bedroom with 2x two bunk beds. These are suitable for children. The bathroom is completely new with bath, shower and sink. There is a separate toilet. The garden is large and offers children the space to play, but is not fenced. There is a TV with DVD player and connection for your ipad. There are no TV channels available.

About this property

A place to rest and recharge. On warm days it is a good base for a day at the beach and in the fall and winter you can snuggle up on the couch with a book at the wood stove. There is a parking space at the house for two cars. There is a Spar supermarket in the park (open seasonally). The park is located at the bottom of the dunes. Within 3 minutes you are at the dune crossing, to enjoy the most beautiful southern beaches in the Netherlands.
