

Dishoek Koudekerke

Waking up on the beach, beach house by the sea

The picturesque sleeping beach cottage on Dishoekse beach is a true delight. Everything is there, add to that a delusion and a priceless view and an attractive accommodation and your vacation can no longer go wrong.

This new sleeping beach house is located in front of the dunes of the largest South Beach in the Netherlands. Completely renovated and fully equipped. The living room with patio doors provides access to the terrace, which is fenced and closed. Get up and go to bed with the sand between your toes, the sun on your face and the sea within reach. In the back is a bedroom with a double bed. Along with a wardrobe, there is also a sink. The kitchen is equipped with every convenience: three gas burners, a small oven and a nespresso machine. The sleeping loft with three single beds is suitable for children. The bathroom has a shower and toilet. Your garden is the beach and you won't find more freedom, peace and space anywhere. You bring your own bed linen.

Park

A place to rest and recharge. A place to always enjoy: on balmy summer days, but also on turbulent spring and autumn days. Enjoy everywhere with the sea at your feet. It is about 10 minutes on foot from the parking lot to reach the accommodation. Paid parking applies.
